

SKMWR hoodies

Back by popular demand, we are selling children's hoodies. They will be £15 each. They will look something like this:

You may notice some similarities between this hoody and the hoodies that we had the last time we produced them. That's because they are identical. So if you were one of the canny ones who purchased in advance for younger siblings, then your reward will come this year!

Sizes are in ages either 9-11 or 12-13.

We have decided not to theme or date Soul Mates hoodies, and we think you'll agree that they are timeless classics.

You can order them on imycd.org from 9th January 2017
